The Big Brod
Johnny Bradley

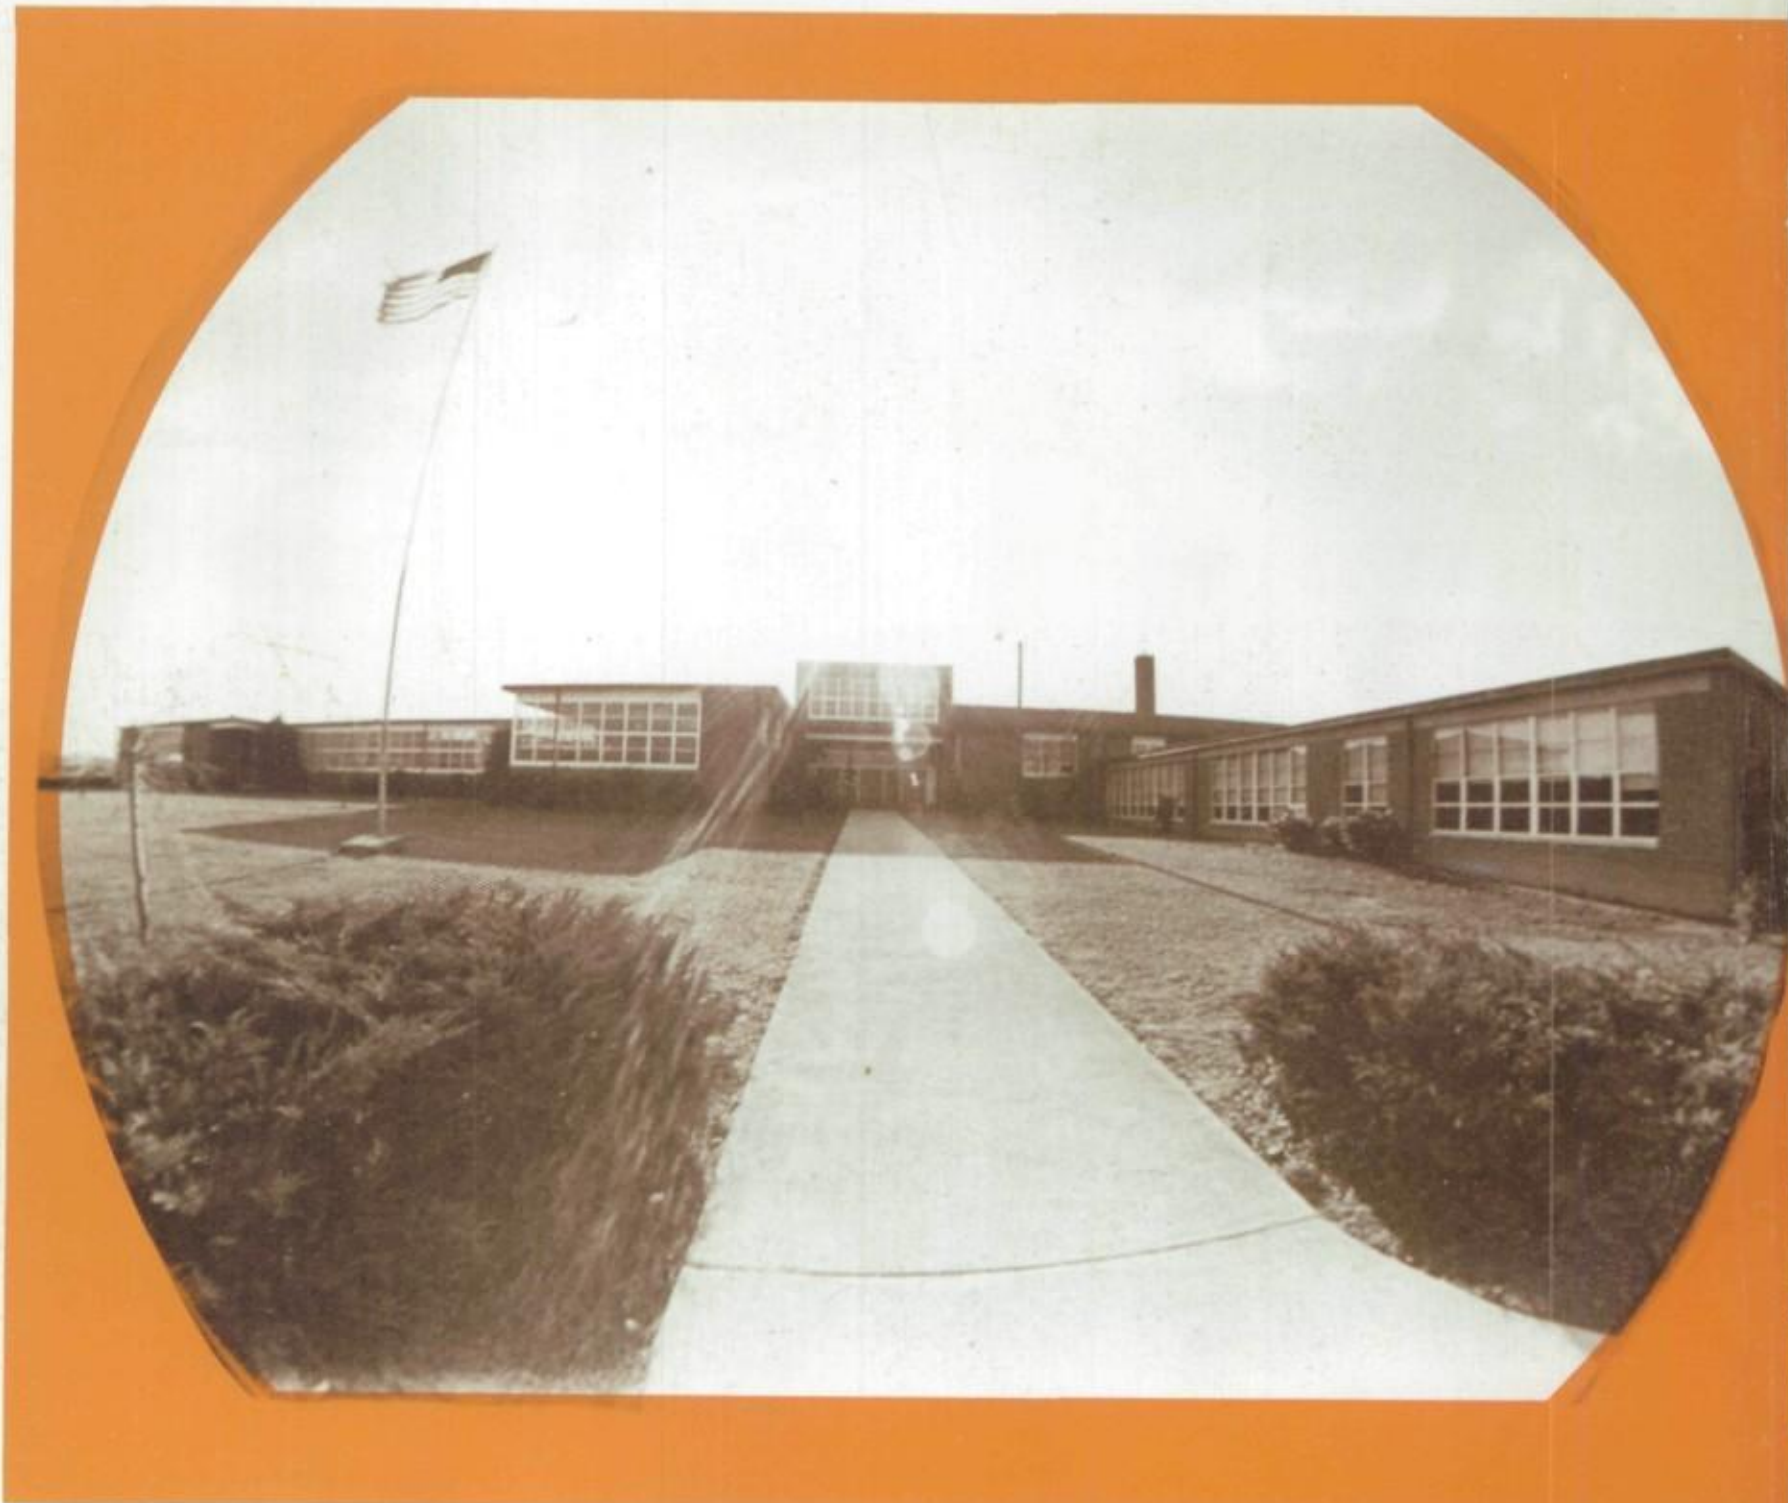

Think of the importance of friendship in the education of men. It will make a man honest; it will make him a hero; it will make him a saint. It is the state of the just dealing with the just, the magnanimous with the magnanimous, the sincere with the sincere, man with man.

Traffic Control

Danny DeBusk, Jimmy Kubas, Tony Gross, Larry Bell, Ronnie Heath

Traffic Control is an organization of boys who are conscious of the safety of vehicles both on and off campus. During ball games and elections, they park cars conveniently so that the drivers will have no trouble leaving. Also, if any trouble arises on buses, they investigate it. As a part of their interest in the school, they volunteer their services to take up tickets at basketball games.

Tennessee Youth Leadership Council was formed in 1964 as an outgrowth of the White House Conference on Children and Youth. The Knox County Council is made up of three representatives from each of the seven county high schools. Its purpose is to interest high school students in civic and governmental affairs as part of their preparation for adult responsibility. It is a service organization in which it helps other clubs with their projects and has some of their own projects.

This year two of the county officers are from Powell High. They are Teresa Scarbro, president; Denise Medved, secretary.

English

Through the years our faculty has worked very hard to expand the program of Powell High School to be as helpful and up to date as possible to the students. This year the English Department has put into effect a program of English electives for juniors and seniors which has been very successful.

Alfred Bell
Social Living, English I, II

Linda Mussen
Advanced Composition, English IV, II
Literature and Drama

Joyce Pearson
Short Story, English I, II,
American History

Sandra Ellis
Business English, Reading

Eleanor McCaskill, English I, II; Social Living

Alberta Carter, English I, II; Mass Communication; Mythology

Sarah Whaley, English I; Public Speaking

Sally Sliger, English II; Structure of English Language; Creative Writing; Journalism; Mythology; Newspaper sponsor.

Foreign Languages

Through languages many doors of opportunity can be opened into new worlds to be explored through communication. We are very fortunate to have two fine language departments of which we can take advantage.

Ruth Gibson; Latin I, II, III

Mary Griffith; Spanish I, II

Home Economics

The Home Economics Department of Powell High has added new dimensions to its program this year. Before, it was one entire course, but this year it has been divided into categories such as textiles and clothing, child care and other various areas. This gives the student the advantage of choosing the particular area in which she is most interested in studying. We should be grateful for such a fine department as this.

Grace Ross; Home Economics I, III, IV, Textiles

Edith Tarver; Home Economics I, II, Food and Nutrition, Family, Childcare

Social Studies

The world of the past, present and future fold into one spacious panorama to make up our never ending history. It is important that past and present events in time are part of one's knowledge in today's age in which the future is within the grasp of the minds of men.

Amy Moyers; World History, Psychology, Social Living

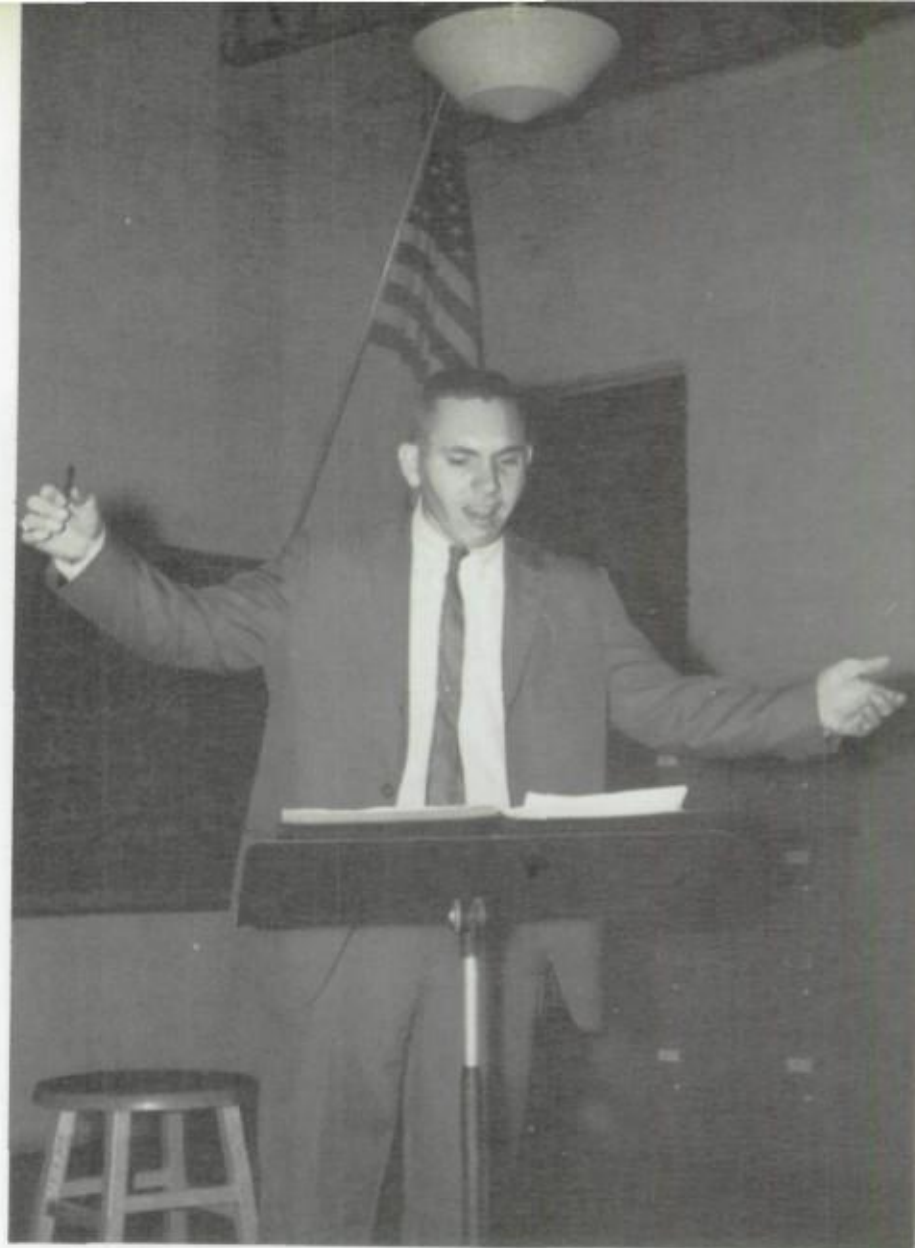

Nettie Higdon; American History, Student Council sponsor

Kenneth Hume; American History, Problems of Democracy, Sociology, Athletics

Fine Arts

Art, music, and band offer students a chance to broaden their knowledge, to explore their interests and to express themselves creatively.

Kenton Kidd; General Music, Mixed Chorus, Beginning Chorus, Advanced Chorus

David Wallace; Band Director

Roberta Ledgerwood; Art I-IV

The Mathematics Department offers a wide selection of courses to every student. These courses include: Business Math, Geometry, Applied Math, Algebra I, II, Advanced Math.

Jane Hubbard; Algebra I, Geometry, Advanced Math

Margaret Kinley; Applied Math I, III, General Math

Nancy Day; Physics, Algebra I, Applied Math

Eleanor Agron, Algebra I, II, Geometry

Mathematics

Blanche Blanton; Chemistry, Advanced Biology

Science

Our science department is fully equipped to fulfill the needs of science-minded students.

Irma Webb; Biology

Helen Shaver; General Science

Esther Blanc; General Business, Typing, Business Law

Gail Burris; VOE, Clerical Shorthand, Typing

Anna Bellamy; VOE, Stenographic, Shorthand, Typing

John Elkins; Bookkeeping, General Business, Athletics, Assistant Football Coach

Business

We are very proud of our business department. Our modern Vocational Office Education department offers excellent training in the field of business.

Physical Education and Health

The physical fitness and health of the students is capably handled by our qualified teachers.

Sandra Headrick; Girls Physical Education, Independent Basketball Team

Allen Morgan; Special recognition

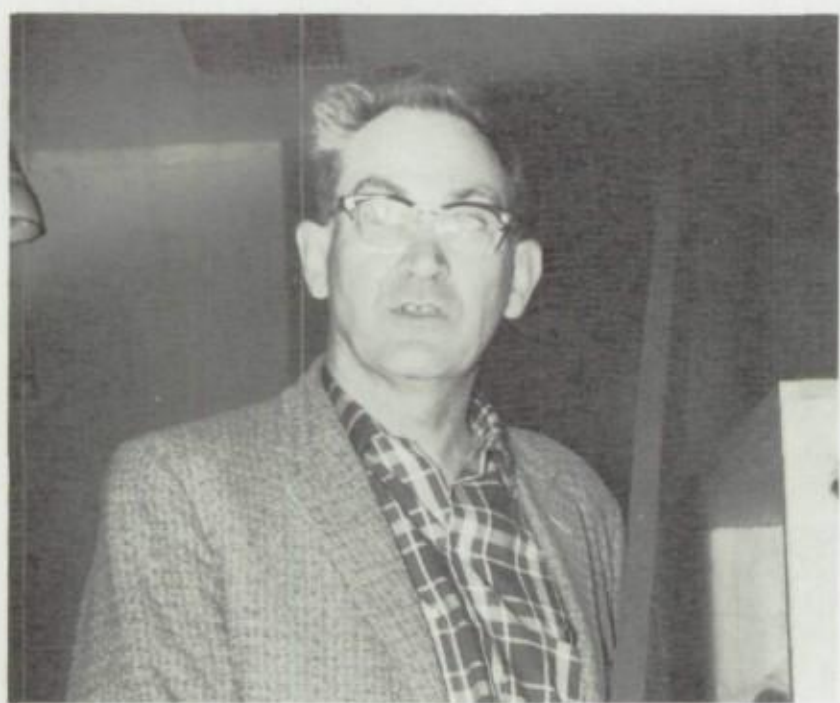

Jeff Hunter; Boys Physical Education, General Math, Basketball coach

Phillip Allen; Boys Physical Education I, Health, Athletics

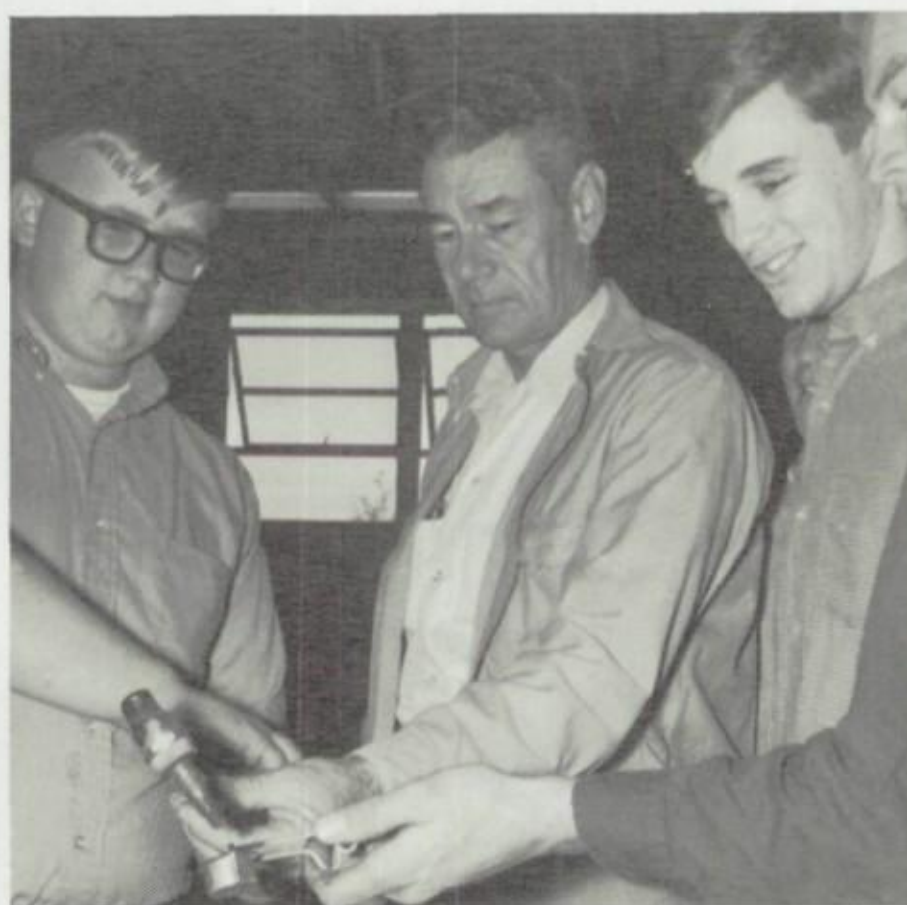

Paul Kelly; Auto Mechanics, Advanced Auto Mechanics

Verton Smith; General Shop, General Metals, Woodwork

Robert Werner; Drafting, I, II, Woodwork

Claude Raby; Advanced Welding, Beginning Welding

Shop and Auto Mechanics

One of the most gratifying and constructive means of learning is through the mastering of a trade such as woodworking, auto mechanics, welding, or mechanical drawing. We are most fortunate to have an excellent shop and auto mechanics department having fine equipment, with which we learn some most useful trades.

In Appreciation of

We also wish to recognize Mrs. Noel who is on a temporary leave of absence, and our Driver's Education teachers: Mr. Larry Acuff, Mr. Larry Mynatt, and Mr. Gill Bruebaker.

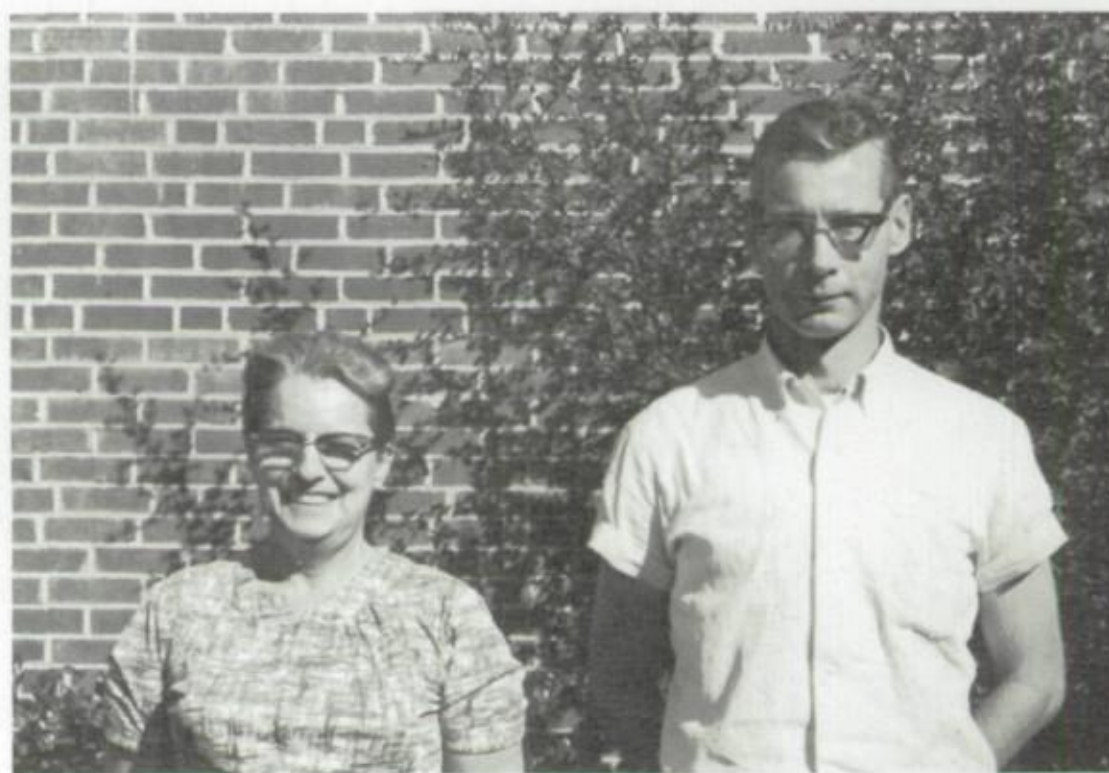

Bill Henson; study hall, athletics, head football coach

Joyce McCloud; librarian
